

Xenia Perek
Tanati & Eri

Performance
20 September 2019 | 8.30 pm at ADA

- two gay brothers, competitive sisters, trans folks, platonic lovers or real ones, co-workers, latecomers, alcohol addicts, arranged marriage, best friends from childhood, formula one racers.

I miss you
You listen?
I do
Can you?

Stop the oxygen
Don't drink water
And fuck me
Just fuck me
I pay you
You pay me
Attention
Attraction
Repulsion
Convulsion
Hysteria
I don't care
I own it
I'm the wo/man
I use it

Xenia aka Xenia Perek is an Amsterdam based performance artist born and raised in a rural area of central Poland. Throughout a very physical childhood spent in a tracksuit, her role model was an androgynous TV character Xena: The Warrior Princess. After 2013, Xenia moved to Amsterdam where she studied at Fine Arts department at the Gerrit Rietveld Academy, alternatively researching her first underground solo signature hosted by an infamous gay Club Church. Her works are mostly placed in clubs and other nocturnal events, highlighting multiple returns to De School, Amsterdam (2017-19).

Photo credits: Fán Liào
Music by: DJ let go